Important Note: Enrolling in a class creates a financial obligation to Boise State University

If you decide NOT to take a class or classes, the financial obligation remains until you officially DROP the class prior to the applicable session’s Drop date. Please see the Academic Calendar to learn the Drop date that applies to the session in which you have enrolled.

Not attending class or participating in a distance learning class is not the same as dropping the class and does not remove the financial obligation.

If you have been awarded financial aid, dropping a class or classes may have financial aid impacts. You may be required to repay all or a portion of any financial aid awarded to you.

Please email  SFINFO@boisestate.edu if you have questions. For deadlines refer to the Academic Calendar.
