The online Advanced Standing Master of Social Work (MSW) at Boise State University is designed for students who earned a Bachelor of Social Work from a program accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE).

The program’s advanced courses address direct practice with individuals and families. Fieldwork in your community provides an opportunity to practice what you’re learning in the classroom. The curriculum emphasizes independent inquiry, commitment to promoting social and economic justice and equality, and commitment to individual and family well-being.

To be eligible for the Advanced Standing Online Master of Social Work program, you must have the following:

- Bachelor of Social Work from a CSWE accredited school within the last five years OR within the last 10 years and have significant post-BSW social work practice experience
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher during the last two years of your bachelor’s degree or an overall undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or higher

Why Boise State Online?
